ABOUT THE SHOW

Chamber Exchange is designed to enhance awareness of the Central Mass region by showcasing businesses and emerging sectors of the local economy through the show's interview format.

Chamber Exchange is available to 185,000 subscribers in Central Mass and more than a dozen Connecticut communities. The show is hosted by Chamber president and CEO Tim Murray and includes interviews with members and business leaders. The show also provides a forum for discussion of economic development, public policy, and other topical issues of relevance to the business community. It also serves as a platform to promote upcoming Chamber programs, events, and services.

Sponsors and advertisers of Chamber Exchange and members of the Worcester Regional Chamber are given preference when inviting guests to appear on the show.
